Terrorists Shoot, Hack Bank Clerk

Slain In Hospital One
Month After Wounded
By Gunmen In Leg

Guns of political assassins claimed another victim at 10.10 yesterday morning when Chung Yang-feng, employee of the Central Reserve Bank, was shot and hacked to death by seven men in a hospital at 19 Route Pottier where he was nursing a bullet wound received exactly one month ago in front of his residence at 219 Route des Sleyes. The brutal slaying took place in the presence of the victim's wife and two children who were paying Chang a visit.

Seven men strong, the gunmen entered the hospital, which is a private institution called Dah Hwa, and requested to see Chang, saying that they are his friends. Shown to the ward they filed one by one into the room which was occupied by Chang who was lying in bed with an amputated leg, his wife and two children and a body guard.

The armed bodyguard seeing the men, immediately withdrew leaving his master at the mercy of the gunmen. While the terrified mother and children hid behind the bed filling the air with cries for help one of the men produced a pistol and pointing it at Chang fired. The bullet entered the victim's skull and caused immediate death.

Producing a hatchet another member of the gang approached Chang's prostrate body on the bed and inflicted a few vicious cuts on the face. Their blood-ory completed, the men withdrew taking the bodyguard along with them.

Officers of the French Police arrived on the scene after the gunmen made good their escape. At a late hour last night the Shanghai Municipal, French, Western Area and City Government Police force were conducting a joint man-hunt for the brutal assassins.
